

ABSTRACT:

In a touch sensor the change in electrical characteristics (impedance, piezo-voltage) of spacing elements (13,14,15,25), provided with an conducting, resistive or piezo-electric layer (15, 25) , are measured to determine the sensing area.

5 Figure 3